"Austin, Texas, December 16, 1925.

TO the Honorable Mayor & Board of Commissioners,
City of Austin.

Gentlemen:

This department is being continually annoyed by receiving false alarms of fire. During this year seventy such alarms have been received.

The practice of willfully reporting such false alarms of fire is both very expensive to the city and extremely dangerous to the lives of both the members of the fire department and the public generally who have occasion to use the streets of the city.

I would respectfully request that your body offer a standing reward of not less than $50.00 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person that knowingly transmits in any way, such false alarm of fire.

Respectfully submitted,

(Sgd) G. L. Woodward,
Chief of Fire Department."
